

Personality Style Diversity in the Education Workforce

A Diversity Brown Bag

Presenters: Ellen Hinrich, MA

Date: Monday, June 22

Time: 11:30 a.m. – 12:45 p.m.

Location: Conference Rooms 3304 and 3306

Through interactive activities and group discussions, Ms. Hinrich will examine personality style diversity in the workforce. She will discuss core competencies needed when working with others who have different work styles.

We will serve cookies and drinks!

Events planned by the Office of the Chancellor's Diversity Team are strongly endorsed by the leadership of the Office of the Chancellor and, therefore, programs which promote a better understanding of our differences are considered an important part of the workday.

Employees and supervisors are encouraged to attend these events and are not required to use vacation leave or compensatory time. Any questions on this topic can be addressed to Office of the Chancellor's Human Resources department.
